

2022 NDSLHA Conference

March 24, 2022

The 2022 NDSLHA conference will be held on March 24, 2022. Graduate credit and continuing education hours will be available (graduate credit offered for those who also attend the NSSLHA conference on 3/25/2022). The conference will be offered in-person and livestream; attendees will choose whether to attend in person or via livestream.

Topics

If You Could See What I See.....FEES and Case Studies: An Adult Overview of EBP and Supporting Literature

-Nicole Kiel Paschke and Chelsey Gronewold

This presentation will review dysphagia, FEES and VFSS (instrumental swallow assessments) and ASHA's stance for need of instrumentation for appropriate diagnosis and treatment plan. We will review case studies and how they correlate with current literature and evidenced based practice.

Educational Relevance for Speech Sound Disorders and Dyslexia

-Dr. Kelly Farquharson

Dyslexia and speech sound disorders both involve the phonological system of language, but manifest with different symptoms. In this webinar, we will discuss the ways in which these two disorders are distinct from one another, and the ways in which they overlap. We will discuss relevant theories, but with direct application to clinical practice. We will review best practices for screening, assessment, and several ideas for treatment.

Speaker Biographies

Nicole Kiel Paschke, MS CCC/SLP, has a 20+ year career focusing on adult SLP therapy. She specialized in acute care, inpatient rehab, and Head and Neck Cancer Clinic. Her career passion is dysphagia. She is currently an assistant professor at UND and owns and operates DakMn Dysphagia Diagnostics, a mobile FEES company.

Chelsey Gronewold, MS CCC-SLP has 7 years experience in the SLP world, primarily in the medical setting. Chelsey spent 1 year at Minot Public Schools and has spent the rest of her career focused on the adult and geriatric scope of practice. Chelsey opened her private practice, North Dakota Speech and Swallowing Specialists, in 2019. NDSSS includes outpatient adult and geriatric SLP services as well as mobile FEES for nursing homes and hospitals.

Dr. Farquharson an associate professor and director of the Children's Literacy and Speech Sound (CLaSS) lab at Florida State University. The CLaSS Lab has a mission to help children with speech and language impairments achieve classroom success. To that end, Dr. Farquharson’s research explores the linguistic, cognitive, educational, and environmental factors that contribute to child outcomes.
